RPG

With you every step of the way

Talk to RPG Advisor.

It's a familiar story. There's a lump sum – say, money from an inheritance; or a bonus or share windfall; or on the sale of a family property.

Suddenly it's sitting in an account. And it often ends up staying there too long.

You should talk to RPG Advisor.

They can get it moved into the right investment fast - so you can relax, and know that you've done the best thing with the money – straight away.

They deal with all the knotty questions. Where's the best place to put it? What are you going to need it for? Is it for school fees, the deposit on a house, putting away for a pension, or getting access to a regular income? And when exactly, do you need to get your hands on it?

Deceptively simple questions – but in today's world it's getting harder and harder to get down-to-earth, independent practical advice.

Yet you need someone who is on the ball and knows what to do. Who can make sure you don't go up any blind alleys with your finances, and gets the job done.

RPG Advisor exists for those whose road is paved with good intentions. Whether it's setting up the monthly saving for a pension, placing a lump sum, or making the most of investment tax benefits, or simply making sure they have the money to live on.

So, if you want simple easy to understand advice, we can organise that – and we won't pester you afterwards. Or, we can be your first step in a personal financial programme.

That's why we say, 'RPG – with you every step of the way'

We have offices in Manchester, London and North Wales.
